I partnered with Matt Clifford, Director of Education Leadership at WestEd, to create and deliver this presentation at the Council of Chief State School Officers Conference in October 2022. The audience was educational leaders throughout the United States. The link is to my portion of the presentation.

Me! Presentation slides: “Me! Elevating Student Voices That Embrace Uniqueness Through Music”

This professional learning presentation was created and delivered to support educators in teaching students how to embrace their uniqueness and use AI (artificial intelligence) to create song lyrics about themselves. This was presented at the IncludEd United Conference in September, 2023.
